HERESY IN FINE CONDITION

KING'S PLATE WINNER OF LAST YEAR BENEFITS BY WINTER'S REST.

Has Improved in Appearance and Filled Out So That He Now Weighs 1,025 Pounds-His Stable Mates Less Fortunate.

Toronto, Ont., March 21.—The many followers of the Brookdale Stable and friends of Albert and Simon Dyment, will regret to learn that their racers did not winter as well as usual at Barrie. Coughs and colds have been prevalent throughout the stable practically all winter, while many of the string, not barring the yearlings, have been troubled to some extent with distemper.

Last year's King's Plate winner, Heresy, has been the most fortunate of the string and is a wonderfully improved horse in appearance over last year. He has wintered excellently and is looking better than ever before. This son of Sain and Hera has grown and filled out in grand style and now weighs 1.025 pounds. That he will be a hard horse to beat in events for Canadian-breds seems probable. Crystiawoga, Elfain, Brewickowa and Stanislowa, all three-year-olds, are the stable's candidates for the King's Plate at Woodbine and, Judging from the performances of the quartet as two-year-olds, they must show vast improvement to be considered dangerous factors for the King's Guineas in May. With the exception of Brewickowa, which has never started, all have had racing experience and are still in the maiden class.

The best of the number is undoubtedly the chest-nut gelding, Crystiawoga, He was twice placed in five aftempts last season, his best effort being at the Woodbine fall meeting, when he finished a creditable second to Maid of Frome. Crystiawoga was a big, rangy youngster last year, but has filled out onsiderably this winter and should show improved form as a three-year-old.

Elfain, a late fally, and not three years old until text June, has developed well since last fall. She has grown and filled out incely. On her three trips to the barrier last season, she performed disappointingly, but was not in condition. Crystiawoga and the daughter of Sain—Elf will be the main dependence of the Barrie horsemen in the King's Plate.

The others platers, Brewickowa and Stanislowa, are doubtful starters. They both suffered from the dependence of the Barrie horsemen in the King's Plate.

The others platers, Brewickowa and Stanislowa, are doubtful starters. They both suffered from the trouble that visited the stable this winter and apparently with telling effect. Brewickowa also went wrong in her underpinning early last summer, but is going soundly again and may stand training, Stanislowa ran creditably in her private trials, but showed little in either of her two appearances under celors.

Tropacolum, a disappointment in last year's King's Tropacolum, a disappointment in last year's King's Plate, has wintered weil and taken on considerable weight. The big gelding showed improvement as the 1912 season progressed and earned brackets twice in twelve appearances with colors up. He has shown a distinct dislike to go a route and will be reserved for races for home-breds at sprinting distances—this season.

Marcovil, alsa a sprinter, has done fairly well and should also score in short distance events in his class.

This year will mark the first appearance of any of the get of the imported horse, Red Fox II., a son of the great Flying Fox, and their efforts will be watched with keen interest. Two of the four two-year-olds, in the string, are by Red Fox II. The others are by Tongorder, The list follows:

Bean Cheval, ch. c, by Tongorder—Depends, Granny's Pet. b. f, by Red Fox II.—Grandma II. Mail Order, b. c, by Tongorder—Miss Morgan, Moss Fox, bik. c, by Red Fox II.—Beile of Harrburg.

Moss Fox is much the fiver better the first strength of the control of the burg.

Moss Fox is much the finest looking one of the lot and is a youngster that is a credit in appearance to any breeder of the thoroughbred. He is stockly built, much on the lines of Heresy, but is minus the lep (nule) ears, a la King James. A race to his looks will make him dangerous in any company. He is the pride of the stable, has worked well as a yearling and is a candidate for the Coronation Stakes.

well as a yearling and is a candidate for the Coronation Stakes.

Granny's Pet is also a promising looking filly of good size and well put together. She luckily escaped the sickness of which Mail Order and Beau Cheval were victims. The latter suffered from pneumonia, but is now rounding to. Mail Order's trouble was distemper. The disease apparently left no evil effects.

The yearlings are a rather fine-looking collection and number nine, as follows:
Bay filly, by Ked Fox II.—Minnewaska.
Bay filly, by Red Fox II.—Depends,
Brown celt, by Tongorder—Miss Morgan.
Chestnut celt, by Red Fox II.—Fair Annet.
Chestnut celt, by Tongorder—Lady Black.
Chestnut celt, by Tongorder—Faroness Pepper.
Chestnut celt, by Tongorder—Flying Bess.
Only two foals have arrived as yet, one a chestout celt by Roy I.—Depends, and a bay filly.

Chestnut colt, by Tongorder—Flying Bess.

Only two foals have arrived as yet, one a chestnut colt, by Red Fox II.—Belle of Hamburg. Of the other cleven broodmares, five are in foat.

The track on the farm has been deep with snow and the horses receive their daily gallop on the road. The stable will, in all probability do the most of their spring training on the track at Barrle and will not ship to the Woodbine until late in May.

DEATH OF KEENE CAST-OFF IN ENGLAND.

The seven-year-old American-bred horse Selectman by Voter—Pink Domino, fell in a steeplechase at Uttoxeter, England, last Thursday and, breaking a leg, was destroyed. As a two-year-old in this coun try in 1908 he raced well for James R. Keene and James Rowe, but was somewhat unlacky and only leg, was destroyed. As a two-year-old in this country in 1908 he raced well for James R, Keene and James Rowe, but was somewhat unlacky and only won three purses, being frequently placed in stake races and running Sir Martin to a half length in the rich National Stallion Race. He was taken to England in 1909 and won one race there for Mr. Keene, the Wharnellife three-year-old handicap at Doncaster. He won nothing in 1910 and was sold to Mrs. S. F. Watts, in whose name he has raced quite usefully on the flat and in jumping races as well. He won for her in 1911 the Worcestershire Handicap at Worcester and the Maidstone Welter Plate at Folkestone. Last year he won four good races for her, three jumping and one on the flat, taking the Kempton Park Hurdle Handicap of $1.085, Christmas Hurdle Handicap of $820 hoth at Kempton Park, August Handicap of $820 at Gatwick and winding up by winning the less important November Hurdle Handicap of $52 at Gatwick This year he had won for his feminine owner the Epsom Steeplechuse at Sandown Park and as the old warrior was a great favorite with her, she no doubt feels his loss deeply.

PALMETTO PARK STRUCK BY STORM.

Changed Condition of Going While Races Are Being Run Produces Upsets.

Charleston, S. C., March 21.—A heavy rain storm that developed after the second race struck the Palmetto Park course with full force and changed conditions in a twinkling. Previously summer-like weather had prevailed and was responsible for an immense attendance, it being ladies' day. Patrons of the racing were considerably inconvenienced, as the rain continued incessantly. The changed going brought with it many racing surprises, some of the winners being entirely neglected in # betting way. The chief upset came in the feature race, when White Wool made a show of his opponents and led for the entire trip. His connections had tried diligently to get him excused from starting after the track became drenched, regarding his chances as hopeless in the going. Merry Lad and Milton B. were held to be suited most by the conditions and were given the bulk of the support. Merry Lad made a game effort to displace White Wool from the lead, but succumbed in the final drive. Milton B. again ran erratically and was led to the finish by Flora Fina for third place.

The third race, in which some fair sprinters met, also brought with it an upset by Bettle Sue's saccess. This filly had been working well and was intended for a pessible beiting coup, but her connections, are said to have profited only slightly by her victory this afternoon. Theresa Gill, the favorite, brought up in second place, with Grosvenor third. Armor's victory in the closing dash brought with it one of the biggest run-ups of the meeting. Entered for $900, he was advanced to $1,900, at which figure he was bought by F. J. Pons. The latter's bidding on the horse was in retaliation for A. G. Blakeley, a ction in taking Brossean and Con Carran out of races when owned by Mr. Pons. Armor was secured freently by Mr. Blakeley, acting for T. F. Sheedy, for $800, by the budding process after he had been returned winner.

Cu Bon, which started in the fifth race, was claimed by J. Johnston, acting for J. O. Talbott, for $700.

The layers were given a severe drubbing in the for $600.

H. Bagley, owner of Mycenae, protested the runup of that gelding by Sam Most on the ground that the latter is in bad standing. The matter was taken up by the stewards, 'Most claims that he was restored to good standing by Messrs, Heazlip and Corrigan and he will be given an opportunity by the stewards to explain the incident and place himself right in regard to the matter.

GIDDINGS HORSES WINTER WELL,

Hearts of Oak Comes Through the Cold Season in Fine Condition at Cedar Grove Farm.

Toronto, Ont., March 21.—Never before in the history of Harry Giddings' Cedar Grove Farm at Oakstille did his stable of thoroughbreds winter in such grand style as during the cold spell now drawing to a close. Not a cough or an ailment of any description has affected one of his horses and all are looking in the plnk of condition. Eleven will make up the shipment to Woodbine Park, Toronto, about April 20, to receive daily work in preparation for the summer campaign.

20, to receive daily work in preparation for the summer campaign.

Five two-year-olds, five three-year-olds and Ondramon, a four-year-old, make up the stable. St. Bass, which is at present being used for breeding purposes, will in all probability be raced during the fall. He is going along soundly again and it is expected he will stand training.

Most interest naturally centers in the King's Platers, Hearts of Oak, Ondramida, Widow Wise and Venus Urania. Hearts of Oak is freely admitted to be one of the finest looking horses bred in Canada. The second morning he was asked to step along at Woodbline last spring, and before he had ever sported colors, his owner refused $5,000 for him. His record of four wins, a second and a third out feech son of Bassetlaw and Lady Lightfoot has shown that he can carry weight, go a route and that he is game.

Last season he had a tendency to act fractionsly on his way to the barrier and at the start. He shows no such signs now and is as kind as a kitten. He was a big two-year-old and, consequently, has not grown much, but has filled out well and at present is as fine a specimen of the thoroughbred as one would wish to see.

In Ondramida the stable has a good second string. She started seven times as a two-year-old, won three is as fine a specimen of the thoroughbred as one would wish to see.

In Ondramida the stable has a good second string. She started seven times as a two-year-old, won three races, was second once and thrice unplaced. This filly was the best of her age and sex of the Canadian home breds and could run in any kind of going. The daughter of Bassetlaw and My Honey is a half sister to Ondramon. She has probably improved morathan Hearts of Oak since last season, having grown and filled out in grand style. Ondramida, along with Sarolta, are the stable's inbiniations for the Maple Leaf Stakes.

Venus Urania and Widow Wise, the other two platers, have greatly improved in appearance. Both have had racing experience and although still in the maiden class, they have worked encouragingly and may develop into useful three-year-olds. Sarolta has never been given the chance to prove her real worth like the others, but has performed creditably both in private and public.

Ondramon, the Coronation Stakes winner, as a two-year-old, has heretofore been a hard horse to round into shape for the early spring racing, but his owners hope that this season will prove an exception.

J. M. Goode will have first call on jockey Buxtor for the Kentucky meetings, but arrangements have been made by which the Schorr stable will get his services in stake events.

A New York jeweler of national reputation is designing the $250 cup that J. N. Camden will present to the winner of the Camden Handicap, to be run at Lexington this spring. For the first two years of its running Mr. Camden gave $1,000 to the handicap bearing his name, and the association added a cup. Now that the association is on its feet, it adds the $1,000 and Mr. Camden will give the cup.

With the running of tomorrow's card, the Juarez winter meeting of 1912-13 will come to an end. The meeting will then have covered 109 racing days, the beautiful that have engaged in the racing there will be about equally divided between Kentucky and Coem d'Alene, the better class as a rule coming this way.

The old Gloucester race track in New Jersey was sold at auction last Wednesday to David Baird, Republican leader of Canden county, for $80,000. The sale, which was held in the office of referee in bankruptcy Ott, was marked by spirited bidding between representatives of George W. Jessup & Son, the New York Shipbuilding company and Mr. Baird. The property formerly was owned by the late william J. Thompson, It recently was sold to G. W. Jessup & Son of Camden for $25,000, but owing to an error in the description of the property, it was necessary to reopen the sale, with the result that $35,000 more was realized than at the original sale.

STIRRING FINISHES AT JUAREZ.

El Paso, Texas, March 21.—Stirring finishes were the order at Juarez today. In the handicap, the first three horses were close together, and in the fifth Parlor Boy, Goldfinn and Engraver passed the judges' stand noses apart. Goldfinn, the favorite, ran wide in the first eighth, carrying Napa Nick out with her. Parlor Boy raced Dominica into submission and, gamely sticking to his task, outlasted the fast coming Goldfinn.

Jockey Estep's riding was the feature of the afternoon. He piloted three winners and one second out of five mounts.

Dave Montgomery, at the long odds of 30 to 1, won the last race from the favorite, Mary Emily, in the last stride.

Maxsono, while going to the post in the second race, ran away and threw jockey J. Whatley to the ground with such force that the rider's right leg was broken below the knes.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

A. E. R., Indianapolis, Ind. The placing bet on Aunt Mamie to win and Durin to show won as a single bet on Aunt Mamie, being void as to Durin because there was no separate show price.

P. F., Indianapolis, Ind. (1) See reply to A. E. R. (2) The bets on Horicon to win, Toy Boy to win and Sir Alvescot place, Mary Ann K, to win and Ocean Queen to show, and Mary Ann K, to win in parlay with John Louis, having been accepted should be paid.

HIS MAJESTY COMING WEST.

Louisville, Ky., March 21.—G. W. Langdon, who has entered His Majesty in the various stakes to be decided at Churchill Downs, Douglas Park and Latonia, has written that he will surely send this great racer to Louisville. In the event that racing is revived in the east he will race His Majesty there later.

later. Without a doubt the horses to be raced on the Kentucky courses this season will be of the highest excellence. Col. M. J. Winn, general manager of the New Louisville Jockey Club, is especially pleased over the sparkling array of thoroughbreds that will be sent here from New York to be raced at Churchill Downs during the thirteen days meeting beginning there May 10.
